Poor old Republican Kansas City. After two years of Davis rule, the rough and tough element is so firmly in the saddle that even the Kansas City Journal, whose editor has so little conscience that he can steal a seat in Congress, gags and refuses to swallow the aldermanic ticket nominated by the Republicans of two wards, and calls upon the city convention to refuse to ratify the anything .- Clinton Democrat.

The Times takes pleasure in presenting the name of E. C. Mudd, of East Boone township, for the consideration of the democratic voters of Bates county for sheriff. Mr. Mudd was born in Kentucky and came to this county in 1873 and settled in the township from which he announces. Shelt Mudd, as he is known to his friends, has a fine farm and is a prosperous farmer, due alone to his individual efforts. To say that he has made a success for himself shows him competent to conduct business for the people. He is a polite, affable gentlemen of good address, a man whose word is as good as his bond, is active, ener getic and courageous, a friend to be loved and an enemy to be feared. He is a consistent democrat, always active in the party's interests and would make a most excellent officer if nominated and elected.

Capt. W. C. Bronaugh, vice presi dent of the ex-confederate home for the Sixth District, spent Saturday in this city in the interest of the institution. While here he circulated a petition and raised $37, Wm. E. Walton heading the paper with a donation of $10. While in the city Capt. Bronaugh favored the TIMES with a call, and informed us that he proposed to do something that he had never done before in his lifeenter the arena of state politics, and that this week his name would appear in the Clinton papers as a candidate for railroad and ware house zealous work for the ex confederate home and the zeal he has put forth in an endeavor to secure a pardon in the Stillwater, Minnesota, penitentiary, has given him a state reputation. Capt. Bronaugh is a splenbeen won by keen business tact and no doubt were he railroad commissioner of this state he would prove a valuable member of the board.

A B. Owen, of Grand River town ship, announces this week as candidate for Treasurer Our readers will remember the phenomenally strong race he made two years ago, lacking only a few votes of the nomination, though it was his first appearance before the people as a candidate. Every democrat in Bates county who has taken part in the county campaign knows Andy Owen, and all know him to his credit. Don't Worry.

Within the past few days the daily newspapers have furnished abundant proof of the ability of men and women to live a hundred years. Between March 20 and 25 there died in the United States Elizabeth Blackburn of Fond du Lac, Wis., 100 years and 6 months old; Hugh McGovern of Wilkesbarre, Pa , aged 100 years and 9 months; Elizabeth Paulson, Lansing, Io., 103 years and 10 months; and Mary Ann Mosely. Columbia, Mo. 111 years and 7 months.

On March 23d Dr. William Sal mon of Glamorgan, Wales, began his 106th year. He is said to be in excellent health and claims to be the oldest Justice of the Peace, practitioner of medicine and Free-mason in the world.

Mrs. Blackburn, the first in the list of deceased centenarians, mentor Morehouse, of the Appleton City tioned, said at her 100th anniversary Herald, I. C. Duckworth, L. "The trust will make a slight advance in tor, but on behalf of Henry county rates on window glass, but cannot afford to put up the prices on glass very much, because the present tariff does not justify it."

> The voters would do well to make a note of this. The situation in the glass trust is similar to that in the case of all the manufactures that were so highly protected under McKinleyism. They cannot now put up their prices to figures that consumers found practically prohibitory. Hence consumption goes on, and strikes are much less frequent than under the McKinley tariff.

There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condi-tion of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal partnership soon after with Judge cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.
